Building Bonds Beyond the Box

During the recent Box Basics for Customers seminar, our team took relationship-building to the next level — outside the seminar room and into the stands at Truist Park! Brian Brown, Oklahoma City sales team and Steve Twamley, Strategic Accounts, hosted Dan Woltman, one of our valued customers, at an Atlanta Braves game.

The outing was a great opportunity to deepen connections, share ideas in a relaxed setting, and show a little hometown hospitality. We love seeing our team find creative ways to build trust and partnership with customers—it's what drives long-term success!
